

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2017

Departure will be from the parking lot of the K-Mart Store in Acme, located on M-31 just north of M-72 at 5:00 a.m. sharp. A second pickup will be made in Cadillac at the Wal-Mart store on Boon Road at 6:00 a.m. A morning rest and snack break will be made enroute to Nashville. Feel free to bring any snacks or drinks you desire; small coolers that fit under the seats of the coach will be allowed. The coach will stop along the route for rest breaks and a lunch stop. All coaches are equipped with restrooms and are air conditioned for your comfort while traveling. This evening’s dinner will be returning to an old favorite in downtown Nashville, the Old Spaghetti Factory, you will have a choice of 3 different Italian favorites for your dinner. After dinner a brief tour of Nashville then return to the hotel for a good night rest.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 2017

Today begins with an included breakfast buffet at our hotel. We will then have a guided tour of Nashville, some of the sites visited will be Music Row, downtown Nashville, Millionaires Row, the home of the Tennessee Governor’s Mansion and several stars, the bi-centennial mall, centennial park, Vanderbilt University and much more. 2017 is the 125th anniversary of the Ryman Auditorium, this afternoon we have a self-guided tour of the Ryman also known as the “Mother Church of Country Music,” and the home of the Grand Ole Opry from 1943 to 1974. Tonight we have a special dinner and visit at the new George Jones Museum and Choices restaurant. It wouldn’t be the George Jones Museum without his riding lawn mower, and yep, there it is in all its green John Deere glory. Alas, while it is Jones’ mower, it’s also a stand-in; the one he once famously rode eight miles to the liquor store because his brother-in-law had hidden his car keys got lost to history a long time ago. But Jones’s widow, Nancy, seems to have kept almost every other artifact and piece of memorabilia important to telling the story of the man many consider the greatest country singer of all time. The museum is part of an entertainment complex that houses Choices Restaurant and the rooftop lounge with live entertainment every weekend.

RYMAN AUDITORIUM.

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 2017

The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum adds a strikingly modern touch to the Nashville skyline and is situated at the epicenter of the city's rapidly growing core, a block from the popular honky-tonks of Broadway. The museum, called the "Smithsonian of country music" because of its unrivaled collection, recently unveiled a $100 million expansion, doubling its size to 350,000 square feet of dynamic state-of-the-art galleries. New to the tour this year you will be able to discover the stories behind the music you love in a private session with one of Nashville's hit-making songwriters. This intimate session allows the rare opportunity to hear hits as they were originally written. The writer demonstrates to our group how a song is created from concept to hit. After the session, join the writer for a meet and greet and autograph signing. Following the tour some free time will be allowed in downtown Nashville to do some souvenir shopping, get some lunch, and just do your own thing. Tonight reserved seats await for the longest running continuously broadcast radio program in the world, The Grand Ole Opry. You'll see over 15 Country Music acts perform live on stage. Each show is packed with a variety of entertainment from Country Music Hall of Fame members to new rising talent, comedy, gospel, bluegrass, and clog dancers.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2, 2017

All too soon our weekend in this exciting and entertaining city has come to an end. We depart this morning and head for home. Stops will be made where lunch and an evening meal may be purchased. The estimated arrival back in Traverse City should be around 11:00 p.m. You'll return with fond memories of a fun-filled weekend in Music City, USA – Nashville, TN.
